

Reunion Held At Home Here

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Pedersen, 2309 W. 241st st., has been the scene of a reunion of relatives during the past week, including four sisters who had not been together for 27 years.

The sisters, all over 60 years of age, are Mrs. Pedersen and Mrs. N. P. Herr of Lomita; Mrs. Jessie Clements of Omaha, Nebraska and Mrs. F. A. Mitchell of Hastings, Nebraska. Others attending the reunion are H. D. Reeves of Bakersfield, brother of the four sisters and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Russell of Denver, Colorado.

The entire group originally lived in Valley County, Nebraska, where they attended the country school together. Mrs. Pedersen stated this week, and added that educational methods in a country school that many years ago were quite different than they are today.

GROUND BROKEN FOR NEW NATIVITY SCHOOL

Ground was broken in ceremonies held Sunday afternoon for the new Nativity Parish school at Carson st. and Acacia ave. The eight-room school, to handle grades one through eight, will cost approximately $100,000.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Bernard J. Dolan, V.F., of St. Anthony's parish, Long Beach, and dean of the Harbor district, broke ground in the presence of civic leaders and several hundred members of the Nativity parish.

Introduced by the Rev. Father Patrick J. McGuinness, pastor of the Catholic Church of the Nativity, Monsignor Dolan congratulated the people of Torrance on their spirit of progress and stressed the necessity of religion in the minds and hearts of the people of the world today. He also congratulated Father McGuinness for his success in getting the project launched, by which children of the parish will have their own parish school.

Actress Rosemary DeCamp, wife of Acting Justice of the Peace John A. Shidler, was introduced by Father McGuinness as the "Mother of the Day" in with furnishing and equipment stressing that the school is a

Gives Ride; Gets Robbed

Leonard Gerald Reynolds, 39, of 4228 Manhattan Beach Blvd., Alondra Park, was robbed of $28 by a man he offered to drive to Hawthorne.

He told Sheriff's officers at the Vermont Avenue Sub-station that he picked up the man on Hawthorne Blvd. When the car reached 120th St., and Hawthorne Blvd., his passenger slugged him unconscious and removed his wallet.

Also on the stand were the Rev. Father Harry J. Murphy, assistant pastor of Nativity parish; Councilman A. L. Jackson, Blaine Walker, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; Sam Levy, introduced as honorary fire chief; A. H. Bartlett, city clerk; James A. Obole, who spoke of Torrance growth in the past 29 years; Ben F. Tanner, general contractor on the school and Anthony and John Kauzor, architects.

The school will cost $99,439, as the "Mother of the Day" in with furnishing and equipment stressing that the school is a

A fund-raising, three-day fiesta will be held in the Nativity church tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday to commemorate the start of the school.

Motion picture stars will participate, and booths and entertainment will be provided. A baked ham dinner will be served Sunday from 12 noon. It is hoped that the new school will be in operation early next year.
